

Chris Leick's
Basic Family Mediation Training
Winter 2010

This Training:

- Meets the Basic Training requirements of Rule 114, to become a Qualified Neutral on the Minnesota Supreme Court Roster, including 6 hours of Domestic Abuse training.
- Consists of 40 credit hours - application for 40 CLE credits is pending and credits for the same course were granted in 2009.
- Prepares students to handle all stages of a simple family mediation.
- Includes guest experts, all of whom are outstanding in their field.
- Provides many small group role play opportunities which are personally coached by experienced family mediators.
- Allows numerous opportunities for questions and discussion, since the maximum number of students is only 15.
- Includes many forms and procedural suggestions.

Primary Trainer, Chris Leick, has been a full time family mediator for 19 years, and has a total over 36 years of experience in family law.
